TOBACCO FAIR!

MAYSVILLE'S SUCCESS!

The Tobacco Fair Draws an Immense Crowd.

A VERY "SEASONABLE" DAY.

Premiums, Music, Addresses, and a Good Time Generally.

NO more has it been demonstrated that Maysville, sometimes all too slow to move, yet, when she gets her "hustling" clothes on, never does she lag. Another thing has been proven to the satisfaction of the veriest mawkback—that it pays to advertise; for the success of this fair is a living proof.

WASHINGTON OPERA HOUSE—WHERE THE TOBACCO FAIR WAS HELD.

of this first Maysville Tobacco Fair, under the auspices of the Board of Trade, was due in large degree to the wide spread publicity given by the press of the city and surrounding towns.

Saturday's incoming trains were filled with visitors to the Fair, while from Ohio came hundreds, many bearing samples of the "weed" for competition. The weather was particularly "seasonable," a steady rain falling nearly all day, but this did not dampen the enthusiasm of the sturdy farmers, of whom fully one thousand had come from distant points.

AWARDING PREMIUMS.

That there might not be the shadow of complaint as to partiality in awarding premiums, judges for the purpose were chosen from gentlemen who do not reside in either of the districts.

There were 304 samples displayed.

At the Court House, Messrs. Thomas L. Best, Dr. J. M. Frazer, O. H. P. Thomas and Pearce Calvert were in charge of their arrangement. Of the total, 101 were Red Leaf, 125 Bright Leaf, 48 Lugs and 27 Cigarettes.

AT THE OPERA HOUSE.

The exercises at the Opera-house began about 1:30 p. m.

Ever the beginning of the program a very large crowd had assembled, showing that the interest of the people had been aroused and that they intended making the final arrangements of the Tobacco Fair as much a success as the exhibitions had been.

The music for the afternoon was furnished by the Maysville Orchestra. President Duley stated the object of holding such a meeting, speaking as follows:

President of Maysville District. Farmers of Kentucky and Ohio, and Tobacco Growers of Maysville. We have provided a program which will give you for the first time the benefit of the tobacco market. We have provided a program which will give you for the first time the benefit of the tobacco market. We have provided a program which will give you for the first time the benefit of the tobacco market.

nothing so well as a man for the stern realities of life. I am proud of the fact that I am a citizen of Maysville. I am proud of the fact that I am a citizen of Maysville. I am proud of the fact that I am a citizen of Maysville.

Every county in both Districts was liberally represented; and experienced tobacco men assured The Leader that no finer display was ever seen in the United States. This is a strong claim, but the facts warrant it, and one enthusiastic gentleman declared that the exhibit ought to be sent to the Paris Exposition.

The judges displayed the most discriminating care, awarding premiums as follows:

BRIGHT LEAF.

First Premium, $20; Joe Burk, Fleming county.

Second Premium, $25; W. S. Tomlin, Mason county.

Third Premium, $10; W. H. Ladenburger, Mason county.

The decision on first premium was unanimous on first ballot.

Judges—R. Y. Spaulding, Wetmore Tobacco Co., Cincinnati; John Downard, Broker, Cincinnati; H. San True, Fair City House, Louisville.

RED LEAF.

First Premium, $30; Thomas Murphy, Bracken county.

Second Premium, $15; W. R. Flaughner, Brown county, O.

Mr. John D. Bruer of Paris attended the Tobacco Fair.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Bridges and son, after a visit to his mother, Mrs. A. M. Bridges, left yesterday noon for their home at Portsmouth.

Bulletin, and the farmers who want their use for seed are invited to call and get a share while the supplies last.

The generous cigar manufacturers of the city contributed to "Square Tobacco" the cigars that were distributed under the auspices of the Tobacco Fair of 1900; and before the printed program was completed many visitors were forced to leave in order to catch out-going trains.

Now for the Maysville Tobacco Fair of 1901!

STAY LEAF.

For numerous courtesies The Leader is indebted to "Square Tobacco."

Mr. Garrett S. Wall's speech was timely, and the applause that greeted his slap at latter-day politics showed plainly that he struck a popular chord.

One of the most prominent visitors was Mr. Will Spaulding, representing the Big Wetmore Tobacco Company of St. Louis. Mr. S. is always a welcome visitor to Maysville.

The officers of the Board of Trade expressed hearty thanks to all who so generously assisted in the promotion and success of the Fair, to mention whom would require a column of space.

Saturday's weather was decidedly beastly, and militated against the merchants. Had the day been bright neither the old city's stores nor its streets would have been the visitors.

All members of Committees did their parts so well that it would be unfair to individualize, further than to say that Mr. John C. Adamson was from the first a most zealous assistant to President Duley.

Mr. Hal C. Curran, Corresponding Secretary of the Board of Trade, was a most assiduous and intelligent worker for the success of the Fair, and the volume of correspondence and the many details have been an arduous task; but he mastered them all, and was equal to every emergency.

FIGHTING ALL DAY

Gen. Warren Engaged With the Enemy at Spearman's Camp and Potgieters Drift.

BRITISH FORCES MADE SOME ADVANCE

They However Report That Nearly Three Hundred Officers and Men Were Killed and Wounded.

Boers Driven From Their Position by the Heavy Fire of the English Batteries—Lord Roberts Advancing.

London, Jan. 22.—The war office received three different dispatches from Gen. Buller, all dated at Spearman's camp. The first one was sent at 6:55 a. m., and said:

"In order to relieve the pressure on Gen. Warren and to ascertain the strength of the enemy in the position in front of Potgieters drift, Gen. Buller made a reconnaissance in force yesterday. This kept the enemy in their trenches in full force all day. Our casualties—21 killed, 100 wounded, 10 missing, 2 killed, 12 wounded, 2 missing."

The second dispatch was dated at 10 a. m., and was as follows:

"The following were wounded in the action near Venter Spruit yesterday: Officers—Staff, Col. R. M. Hamilton and Maj. C. McGee; Second Lieutenant—Fulcrum, Capt. R. M. Blunt and Second Lieut. M. G. Crofton and E. M. Roberts; First Border Rifles, Capt. C. D. Vaughan and Second Lieut. Murrie; First York and Lancashire, Second Lieut. Keir; Second Border Rifles, Capt. A. Hensley (died dead), and Maj. F. English; Second Gordons, Second Lieut. P. D. Stewart, and 270 non-commissioned officers and men. The third and last one was sent at 9 p. m., and said:

"Gen. Warren has been engaged all day, chiefly on his left, which he has swung forward about a couple of miles. The ground is very difficult, and as the fighting is all the time uphill, it is difficult to say exactly how much we have gained, but I think we are making substantial progress."

DETAILS OF THE BATTLE.

Boers' Batteries Were Completely Silenced and the British Position Considerably Advanced.

Durban, Jan. 22.—The Natal Advertiser has the following from Spearman's camp, dated Saturday:

"Gen. Warren's column attacked a lengthy Boer position on the northern ridge of Spion. A heavy bombardment by a field battery, preceded the advance. The Boers were repulsed with two guns, several machine guns and rifles. The British responded similarly, and long range firing became general, lasting until dawn. "Gen. Bullard drew the Boers from a splendid position simultaneously by a demonstration on their frontal position, drawing a rifle from the Boers. Nordenfeldts and rifles. The British naval guns and howitzers shelled the trenches with excellent effect, and many Boers were observed bolting. The British artillery completely silenced the Boer fire, and at night fall the British infantry occupied an excellent advanced position."

Lady Smith's Losses.

London, Jan. 22.—A third supplementary list of the British casualties in the attack upon Lady Smith on January 6, was published by the war office. It shows 28 non-commissioned officers and men killed and five seriously wounded. This brings the total of casualties in that engagement to 455.

Col. Plumer at Gaborone.

Lourenço Marques, Jan. 22.—A dispatch from Gaborone, undated, says: "Col. Plumer has worked down this far toward Mafeking with three armoured trains and a relieving force. The bridge is being rebuilt, so that he may proceed."

Lord Roberts' Report.

London, Jan. 22.—The war office has received the following from Lord Roberts, dated Cape Town, January 21: "Gen. French reports a demonstration with cavalry and two guns toward Hebron on Friday, but that otherwise his situation is unchanged."

Gen. Warren Advancing.

Spearman's Camp, Jan. 22.—Gen. Warren's engagement with the Boers has forced the enemy from their positions. The Lancashire and Irish brigades are advancing steadily. The fire is very severe occasionally.

Hospital Ship Reaches Cape Town.

Cape Town, Jan. 20.—The American hospital ship Menard of the West India docks, London, December 23, has arrived here.

MAKING HEARD FROM.

The Garrison Holding Out Against Attacks and Has Jan. 22—Three More Months.

Mafeking, Jan. 6, by runner to Mowden, Jan. 14, via Lourenço Marques, Jan. 21.—"We concentrated our artillery, consisting of a seven-pounder, a Nordenfeldt and one 84 mm. shell gun, on January 3, compelling during the darkness, so as to bear on the enemy's big siege gun. We carefully guarded the guns until the next afternoon, when after the enemy had fired a couple of shells, we let loose all our pieces, firing and loading as fast as possible.

"One of our shots must have thrown the enemy's siege gun out of position. It ceased firing. With glasses we could see the Boers rapidly reinforcing that point.

"The next day they moved back their guns 700 yards. They employed a five-pounder and proceeded to drop shells regularly into Market square.

"We have made up our mind not to stick it out and have food for another three months. The whole garrison is enraged at the enemy for firing upon the women's laager."

Boers Keep Up Bombarding.

Mafeking, Jan. 10, via Gaborone, via Lourenço Marques, 21.—The enemy continue the bombardment with field guns and an occasional 100-pound shell. They have again fired at the women's laager, but without hurting any one.

PRO-BOER MEETING.

A Large Mass Meeting at the Auditorium in Washington to Organize a Series of Resolutions.

Washington, Jan. 22.—The Grand opening of the Washington Auditorium in Washington, was packed to the doors with an enthusiastic audience which vigorously expressed its sympathy with the Boers in their fight with Great Britain. The demonstration was planned as a means of evincing public sentiment and in numbers and enthusiasm was fully up to expectations. The speakers included members of both branches of congress and on the stage were other public men who came merely to lend their moral support. The keynote of the speeches was that the Boers were fighting for their independence as our forefathers had done in 1776. The gathering assembled under the auspices of the United Irish societies, and a number of leading Germans of the city joined in the movement.

The Congressmen Sulzer presided and after his speech introduced Senator Mason, of Illinois, who delivered the principal speech. Other speakers were Congressman Bailey, of Texas; Senator Allen, of Nebraska; Congressmen Clark, of Missouri; De Armand, of Missouri; Cochran, of Missouri; Rhea, of Kentucky; Lentz, of Ohio, and Mr. Van Sicken, of New York.

After the speech of Mr. Van Sicken, the following resolutions were received, including one from Senator Hale, of Maine, expressing regret at inability to be present and entire sympathy with the Boers.

The following resolutions were adopted:

"Whereas, The American people still cherish the lessons and traditions of 1776 and therefore fully understand and realize the rapacious war which Great Britain is waging against a small but patriotic people, whose misfortune is the possession of natural wealth coveted by British greed.

"Whereas, In the prosecution of this robbery warfare, Great Britain has been balked as yet of her tyrannical designs, and has therefore resorted to unlawful and barbarous war tactics as her only means to win."

"1. The arming and mobilizing of savages.

"2. The distribution of dunn dum bullets to her soldiers, coupled with the boast that the British government possesses 100,000,000 such missiles.

"3. The illegal seizure of merchandise en route from the neutral ports of the United States to friendly Portuguese markets.

"Whereas, The president of the United States has not taken proper notice of these outrages, making it necessary for the people at large to express their wrath by public assemblages and serious warnings;

"Therefore, The citizens of the American capital, in mass meeting assembled, have:

"Resolved, That the people of the Orange Free State and the South African Republic are and of right ought to be free and independent, and their civilization is recognized to be equal in morality to that of any other people, and that the false policy of the British press to the contrary notwithstanding. Therefore the precipitation upon them of military attacks in aid of the British soldier threatens the repetition of the horrors of Wyoming, Fort Dearborn and other places, bitterly remembered by the American people as ruthless instances of British perfidy and dishonor. The attention of the president of the United States is respectfully directed to this feature which is a notorious matter of common report throughout the world.

"Resolved, That this meeting in concert with the American people throughout the land sends its sympathy and good will and heartfelt encouragement to the Boers and reminds them of the aid and support which the same foe, so may they.

"Resolved, That we beseech and strongly urge the president of the United States to exercise the prerogative vested in him by the peace convention lately arranged by the powers of the civilized world, to begin him to offer his good offices as a mediator between the Boers and the British for the deliverance of these unfortunate Englishmen and their families, who have been punished for the crime of a brigand band of gold grabbers and land hungry conspirators, not one of whom is at all worthy of a British soldier.

"Resolved, That we solemnly protest against the shipment of munitions of war from this country for the use of Great Britain.

Two Hundred Killed.

San Francisco, Jan. 22.—A special to the Examiner from Nogales, Mex., says a battle has been fought by the Mexicans and Yaquis, in which the Yaquis were defeated. The Yaquis killed numbered 200. Five hundred were taken prisoners.

CONGRESS WORK.

Forecast of the Proceedings of Both the House and Senate For the Week.

ROBERTS' CASE TO BE DISPOSED OF.

Three Days Likely to Be Consumed in Speech Making Before a Vote is Reached.

He Will Not Be Permitted to Sit in Congress—Quay's Contest Case to Be Brought Up in the Senate.

Washington, Jan. 22.—The feature of the proceedings in the house this week will be the consideration of the case of Irigahen H. Roberts, the Mormon representative-elect from Utah.

The case has attracted intense interest all over the country. Though both the majority and minority of the committee which investigated the case agree that Mr. Roberts should not sit as a member of the house on account of alleged polygamous practices, there will be a struggle over the question of procedure, upon which the committee has split.

The case will be called up on Tuesday, and two, possibly three, days will be devoted to it. The majority of the committee is of the opinion that Mr. Roberts should be excluded, while the minority contend that he be seated and then expelled, basing their argument for this course upon the ground that Mr. Roberts possesses all the constitutional qualifications for membership, and that any attempt to exclude him upon the theory that congress has the power to add to those qualifications would establish a dangerous precedent that might result to plague congress in the future.

Mr. Latta, of Maryland, and Mr. De Armond, of Missouri, who presented the minority report, will make a strong fight and say they believe they can convince the majority of the house that the course they advocate is the only proper one to pursue. The majority of the committee on the other hand are confident that they will be backed, by a majority of the house, Mr. Roberts is expected to make a plea in his own defense. Should he be seated in accordance with the contention of the minority a resolution to expel him will be immediately offered and this doubtless will carry by an almost unanimous vote, although the majority in their report have insisted that once seated a member can not be expelled for acts committed before he was a member of the house.

Friday will be devoted to eulogies upon the life and public services of the late Vice President Roberts.

The senate again this week will devote itself almost exclusively to speech making. A variety of subjects will be covered. The financial bill will remain the unfinished business, but the senate will not be held strictly to its consideration. Several set speeches probably will be made upon it, among those which are expected to speak being Senators Cockrell, Daniel and Allen. No announcement has yet been made of speeches on the North Carolina constitutional question.

The first speech of the week will be made immediately after the close of the routine business by Senator Pritchard on his resolution denouncing the proposed amendments to the constitution of North Carolina to be in contravention of the federal constitution. He will speak on the North Carolina constitutional question.

The two reports on the Quay contest will be presented early in the week, and as this contest is a privileged question, it is not likely to receive early attention. Senator Penrose, who is in charge of Mr. Quay's case, says he will ask that the contest be presented to an early decision in the senate. The Samson treaty will also be taken up again in executive session on the motion of Senator Jones, of Arkansas, to reconsider the vote by which it was ratified. The treaty has been already returned to the senate by the president to await the presentation of the Arkansas senator's motion.

INTER-FAMILY ROW.

Three Italians in New York City Shot to Death by Three Members of Another Italian Family.

New York, Jan. 22.—Three Italians of one home were shot to death in an inter-family row which began in an Italian tenement house on East 11th street, and ended in one of the worst Sunday brawls the east side has seen for some time.

Antonio Colletti, 37 years of age, married, was shot through the lung and died in his tracks; Caspar Colletti, 19 years of age, his brother, was shot in the breast and died shortly after being taken to the hospital; and David Salvatore, 40 years of age, a cousin of the Colletti, was shot in the stomach and died in the hospital a few hours afterward.

Vincenzo Spinella and his son Frank, 17 years of age, have been arrested and charged with the murder, and the police are still searching for Frank Spinella, brother of Vincenzo, who also played a part in the tragedy.

Half Brothers Lynched.

Pt. Scott, Kan., Jan. 22.—Geo. Silbe and Ed Meeks, half brothers, who were convicted of murder here last year, and were lynched by a mob in the county jail yard here.

NEWS IN KENTUCKY.

INDICTED FOR MURDER.

Col. Colson Held for the Killing of Ethelbert D. Scott at Frankfort by the Grand Jury.

Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 22.—The grand jury investigating the Colson-Scott tragedy in the Capitol hotel made a report, indicting Col. Colson on two counts for wilful murder and on two counts for carrying concealed weapons. The first two indictments charge him with murder in the following language:

"The said David G. Colson in the said county of Franklin, on the 16th day of January, 1900, and before the finding of the indictment, did unlawfully, wilfully, feloniously, of his malice aforethought, with intent to kill, with a pistol, a deadly weapon loaded with powder and leaden ball, shoot, wound and kill and murder one Ethelbert D. Scott."

The grand jury asked for further time to investigate. Other witnesses will be examined with a view to ascertaining whether Colson or Scott killed Charley Julian and wounded Harry McLean.

Col. Colson's condition is somewhat improved, and fears as to his losing the wounded arm are no longer entertained by his physician. The news of the grand jury's verdict carried him at once, but he manifested no surprise, as it was understood that he had expressed the opinion that the only way to clearly ascertain the facts in the case was through the courts, after he had been indicted.

Golden Growing Better.

Louisville, Ky., Jan. 22.—The condition of Capt. Ben Golden, who was shot in the Capitol hotel, died at Frankfort, shows steady improvement and his physicians say that his recovery now seems to be certain. They will not say that he will see any one or do any talking. As soon as his condition will permit they will begin to prepare for the ball which lodged near his spine.

Did Not Die of Smallpox.

Owensboro, Ky., Jan. 22.—The result of the autopsy on the remains of Charles Bailey, reported as having died on January 9 of smallpox, results in the coroner's jury returning a verdict to the effect that Bailey came to his death by wounds inflicted on his head with some blunt instrument. There were four wounds on Bailey's head. Jim Nichols, Felix Nichols and Richard Hathaway are held in jail charged with Bailey's murder.

Two of His Sons Hanged.

Rockhouse, Ky., Jan. 22.—"Uncle" Allen Hall, aged 93, a mountain pioneer, is dead at his old home near Baker. He was the father of the late Tilton Hall, the celebrated Kentucky outlaw, who killed 17 men in his day, and who was hanged at Wise C. H., Va., in 1892. He was also the father of Henry Hall, who killed his uncle, Chas. Hall, and who was hanged at Pikeville, Ky., in 1893.

Drank Carbolic Acid.

Louisville, Ky., Jan. 22.—Harry Vowels committed suicide by drinking carbolic acid. He went to the home of Charles Fields, Thirty-seventh and Florida streets, and, walking up on the porch, drank the deadly draught, and died before assistance could reach him. It is said he was in love with a sister of Fields.

No Right of Removal.

Scottsville, Ky., Jan. 22.—The court in the suit of J. C. Wagnall, of the town of Scottsville for the office of city marshal, from which he was removed several months ago by the town council, for alleged inefficiency in office, ruled that while the trustees had acted in good faith, they had no legal right to remove Wagnall from an elective office.

Blooded in His Heart.

Dublin, Ind., Jan. 22.—Chas. Storker, aged 6, while in the act of dressing, fell over dead. His parents thought the boy had been poisoned, and had an examination made, which developed that a blood-clot had formed in the auricle of the heart. The physicians say the case has no parallel in the history.

Mail Carrier Murdered.

Mayfield, Ky., Jan. 22.—Sam Briggs, a one-legged mail carrier living at this place, was murdered in the post office at Boydsville, 20 miles south of here, by Ed Bruce. Bruce claimed that Briggs had insulted his wife, but this is denied by Briggs' friends. Bruce is still at large.

Kentucky Labor Unions Organizing.

Louisville, Ky., Jan. 22.—In response to a call by James McGill, president of the Central Labor Union of this city, all of the members of the six unions met in a convention here Thursday for the purpose of forming a state federation of labor.

Judge Pettie Dead.

Elkton, Ky., Jan. 22.—Judge H. G. Pettie, a prominent citizen, banker and lawyer, died here, aged 59 years. He was a republican and was once state senator and was a member of the constitutional convention. He leaves a handsome estate.

Dead in the Courthouse.

Carrollton, Ky., Jan. 22.—Frank McKay was found dead in the hallway of the county courthouse. He had climbed a pole in the night, and in attempting to go upstairs had fallen to the marble floor and sustained fatal injury.

Superintendent Goslee Dead.

Louisville, Ky., Jan. 22.—Dr. Levin E. Goslee, superintendent of the asylum for the insane at Leland, died of heart disease. He was a native of Newcastle, Henry county, and was 62 years of age.
